

227 Ravensdale Road YARRAMALONG NSW

1  1

The original school of Ravensdale first opened in 1892 and has been rebuilt twice since due to upgrades & fire. Maintained in keeping with the era & de-commissioned as a school in the mid 1950's. This beautiful building shows the aesthetic design with use of verandahs & built to accommodate a small number of children through the years. Today, privately owned & consisting of main building, separate toilet and shower block, tennis court, grazing paddock & a magnificent back drop with views over the Wattagan Ranges. This north facing aspect, timber floors with open fire place, kitchen, where else would you find a perfect weekender.... tennis anyone?!?!

This property is located in Ravensdale the next suburb on from Yarramalong.
